PROFILE

I run an AI operating company. Since 2023 Kerzie AI Solutions has designed, sold, and deployed custom AI products for enterprise and mid-market clients, and four products are in production today, serving businesses in field services and automotive retail. I am the founder, the architect, the seller, and the operator at once, so I translate AI architecture into business outcomes because I have shipped it, not because I have sold around it. Behind that is thirty years of enterprise sales leadership: $420M+ in career revenue, nine deals over $12M each, $184M closed at Ribbon Communications across twelve years at 102%+ average attainment, and a 12-person sales organization I led at Calix against a $60M annual quota, building its operating cadence and coaching model from scratch. I have run the founder-led motion and the scaled one, and I know what the transition between them actually costs.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- AI operating company founder and operator: products designed, sold, deployed, and running in production
- Founder-led to scalable enterprise GTM, built from zero and then built to scale
- Enterprise new logo acquisition and multimillion-dollar deal cycles with Fortune 500 and Tier 1 service providers
- Voice AI, agentic workflows, LLM orchestration, and STT/TTS pipelines deployed in production
- Coaching and developing enterprise sales teams; number ownership, forecast accuracy, pipeline inspection
- Complex buying committees: procurement, legal, technical architecture review, C-suite approval
- Communications, UCaaS, CCaaS, SaaS, and telecom analytics domain depth (Ribbon, Calix, EXFO, NEC)
- MEDDPICC, Challenger, Command of the Message, Force Management, Miller Heiman, Karrass Negotiation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Founder, Kerzie AI Solutions (AI Operating Company)

McKinney, TX | January 2023 - Present

- Founded and run an AI operating company, owning product strategy, architecture, the entire sales motion, and post-deployment operation. Four products are in production today
- The Back Cover (kerzie.ai/back-cover): AI-search readiness product that engineers how a business is retrieved and cited by ChatGPT and other AI assistants, verified against the model providers' own crawlers. A signed dealer client, with a daily production refresh of its 300-plus-vehicle inventory feed, sold through a referral partner and seller motion I built
- TrueSeat (trueseat.io): AI-interview-to-dossier hiring engine live in production: a structured AI interview, evidence capture with provenance tiers, and an auto-generated candidate dossier at a hosted URL
- GotaGuy (gotaguy.chat): home repair marketplace that runs on SMS, live in two markets with Stripe checkout, homeowner messaging, and contractor dispatch
- Unison: omnichannel lead response for small and mid-sized businesses, covering lead qualification, scheduling, and pre-qualification
- Client deployments across verticals: Voice AI for manufacturing (Kat Fabricators) and electrical field services (Aim High Electrical), and agentic lead qualification

- Run the complete founder-led sales motion end to end: outbound, discovery, scoping, proposal, negotiation, and post-deployment optimization
- Translate LLM orchestration, STT and TTS pipelines, agent architecture, n8n, LangFlow, and the Claude API into executive business outcomes for buyers who do not come from a technical background
- Built and launched paid acquisition campaigns entirely through the Meta Marketing API
